

EXPERIMENT – 1

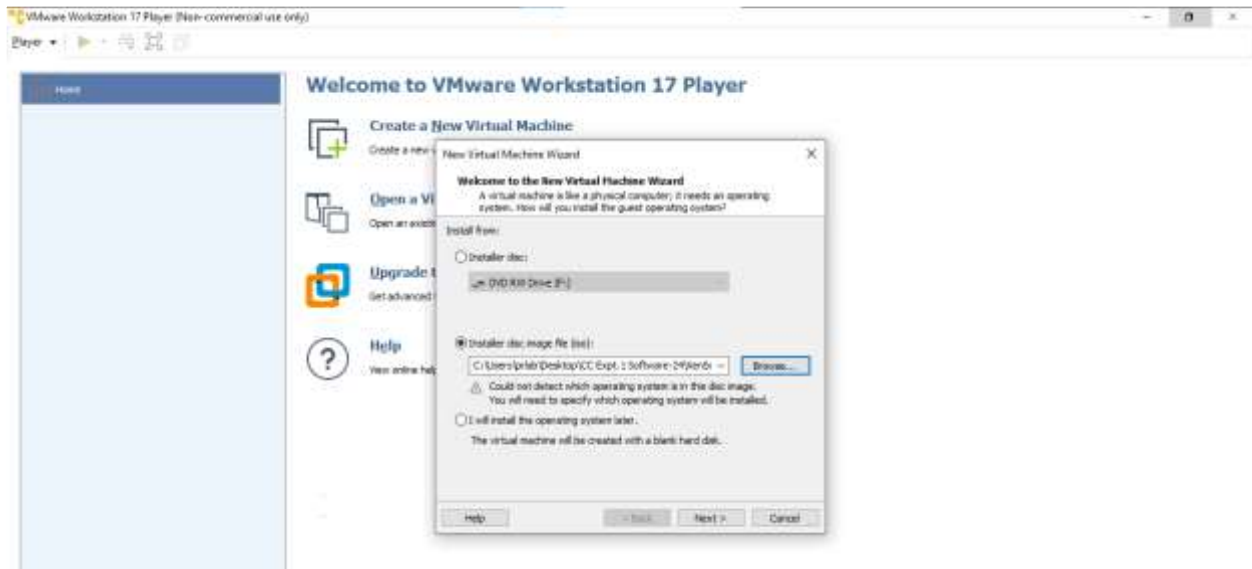

Step 1. After installing - Open VMware workstation [deleting existing machines if available]

Step 2. Selecting the iso image file

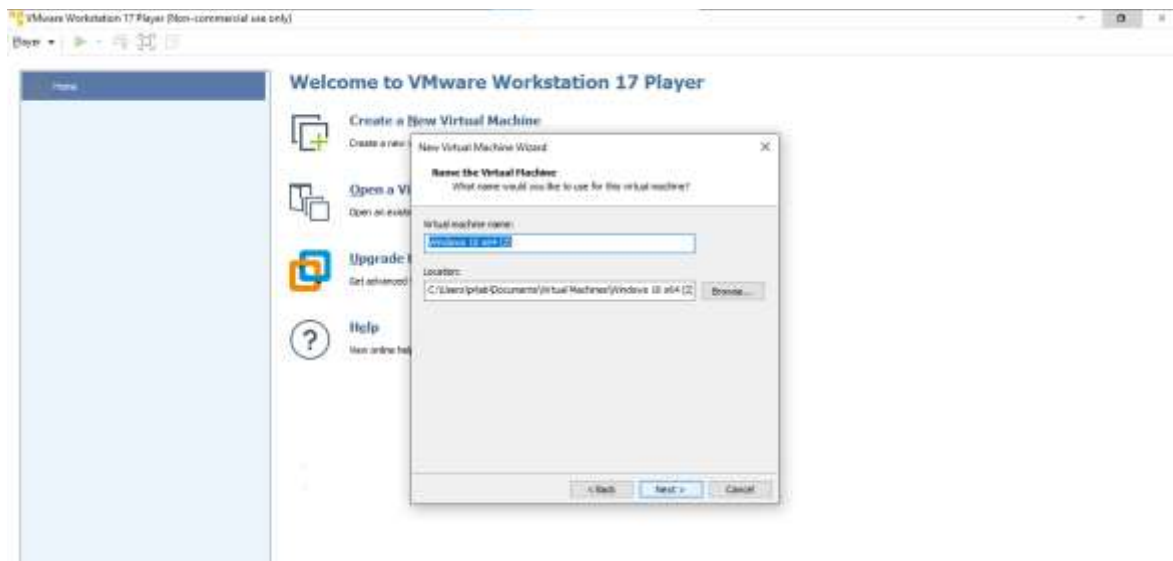

Step 3. Downloading and adding the path of disc image

Step 4. Selecting Microsoft windows as guest operating system

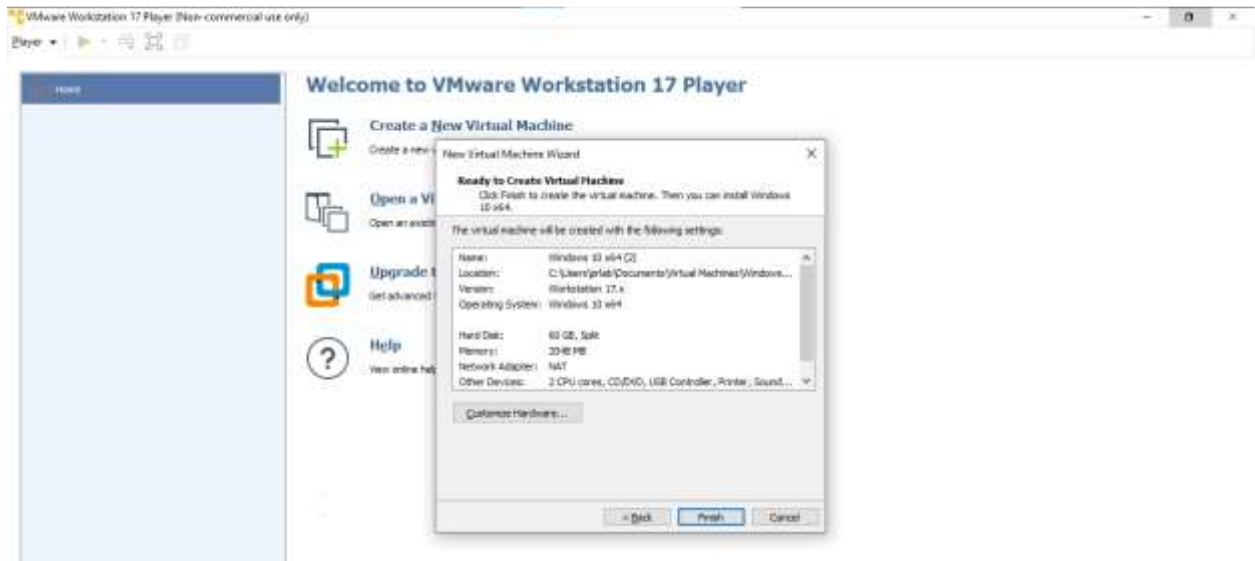

Step 5. Selecting a virtual machine name

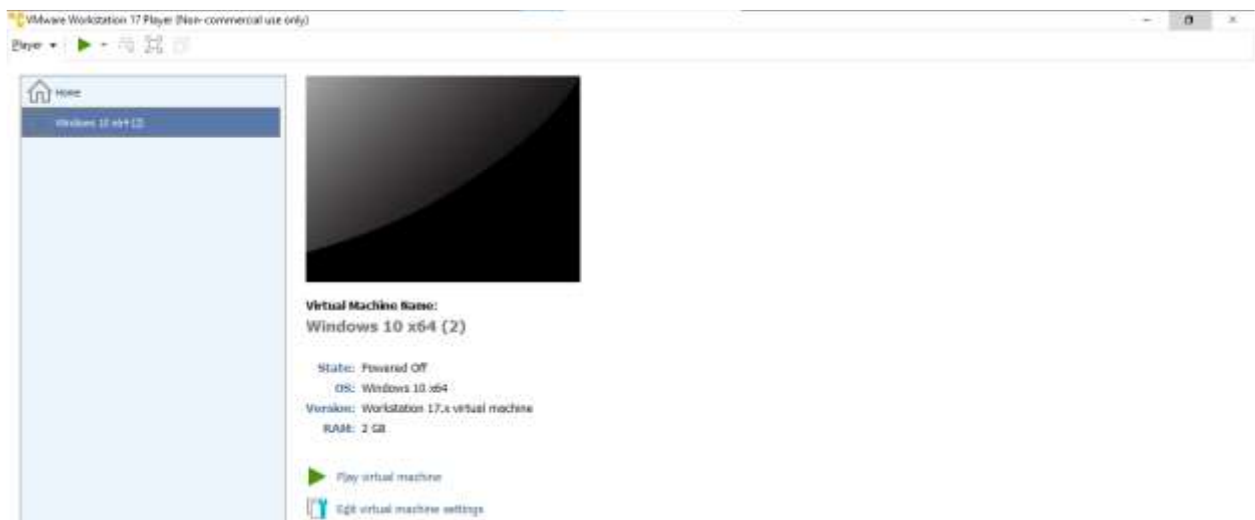

Step 5. Specifying disc capacity for the virtual machine [60 -> check memory C or D drive]

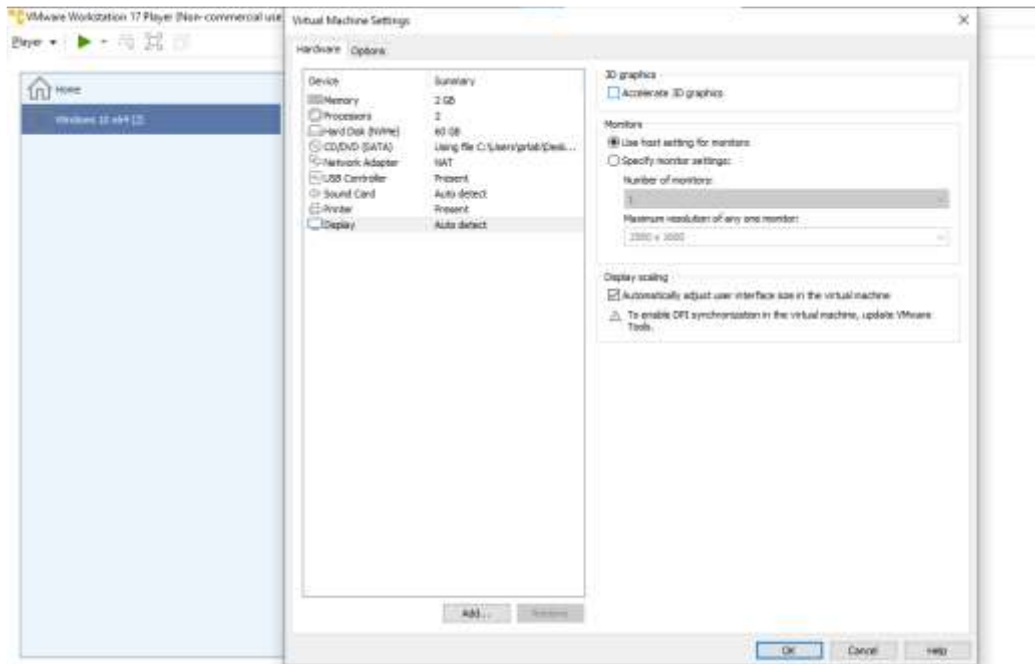

Step 6. Specifying disc file

Step 7. After clicking on “Finish” the workstation will now have a virtual machine

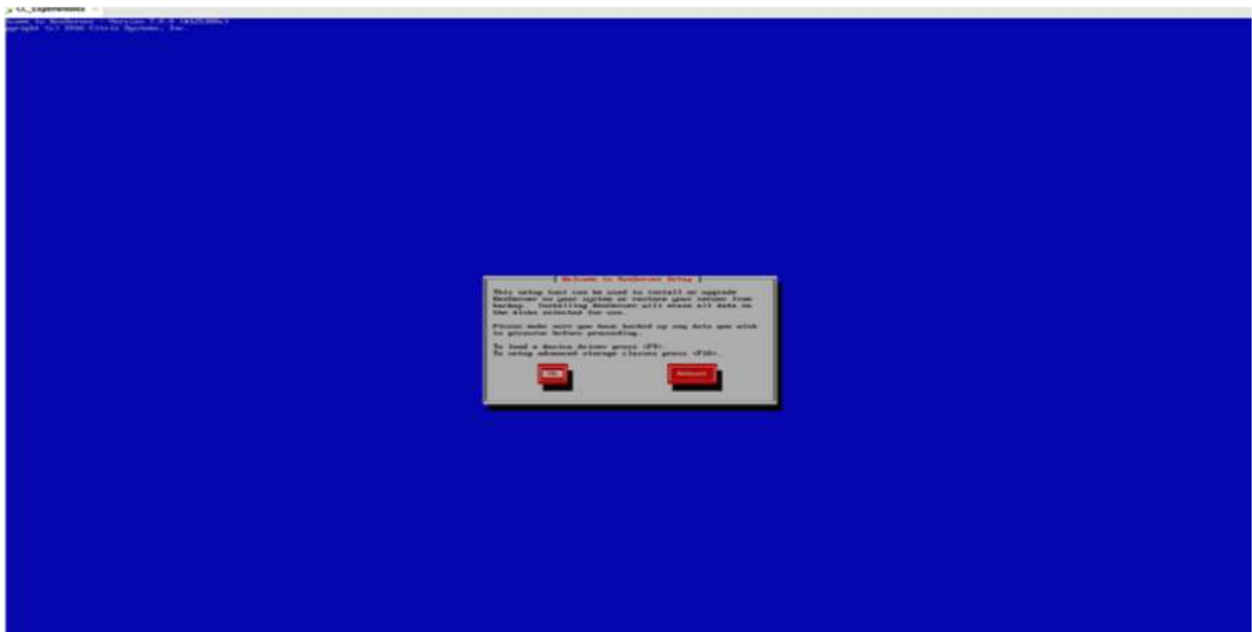

Step 8. Editing the virtual machine setting – ‘display’

Step 9: Powering on the virtual machine [click play virtual machine]

Step 11. Confirming Dialogue-box

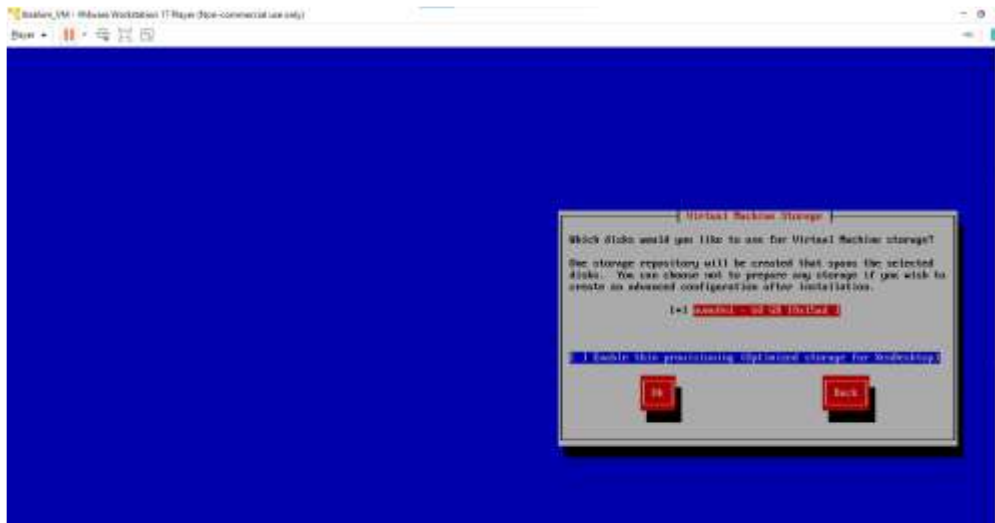

Step 12. Accepting the terms [select Ctrl+Alt for mouse activation and Tab for option selection]

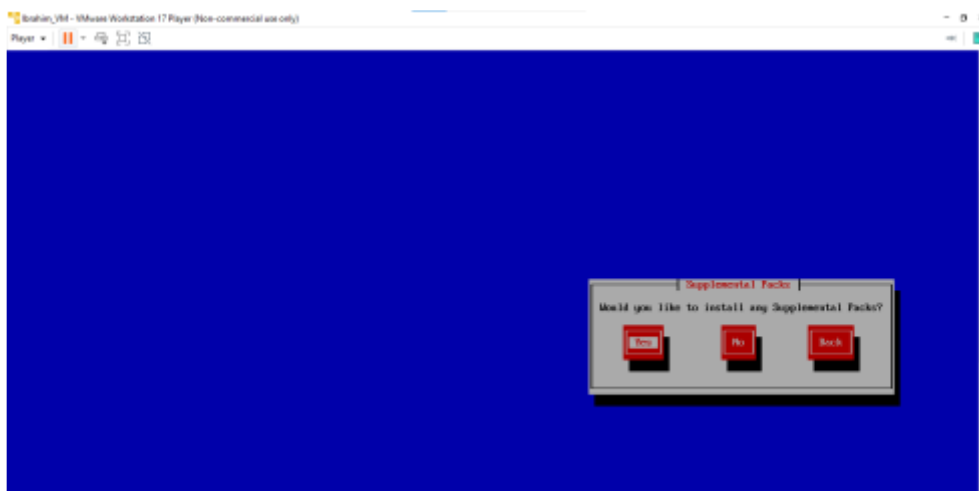

Step 13. Confirming the dialogue-box

Step 14. Selecting the disk for virtual machine storage

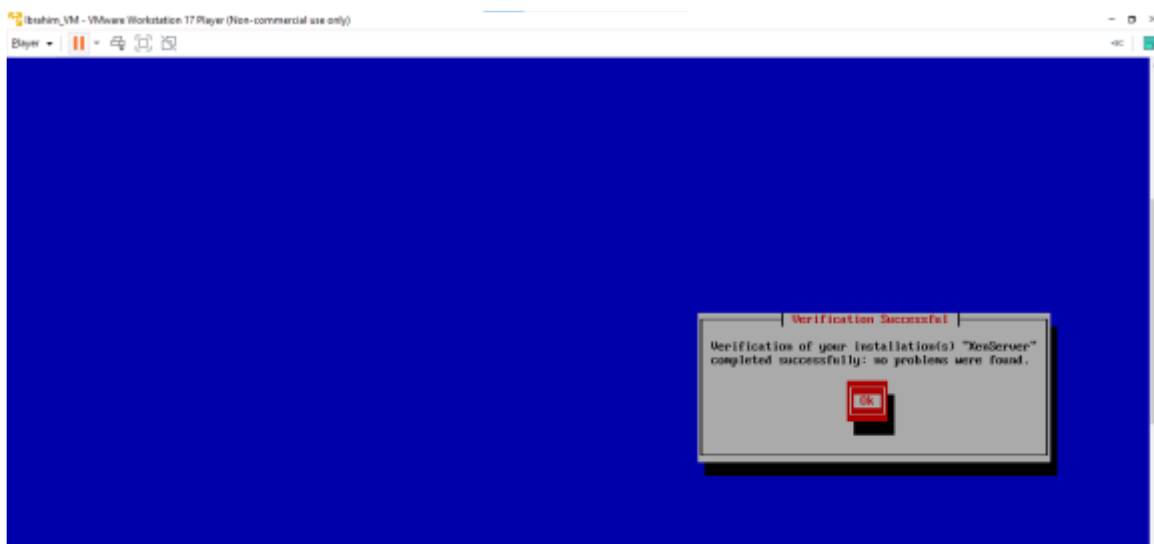

Step 15. Selecting installation source

Step 16. Opting to verify the installation source

Step 17. Setting the password

Username: xenserver

Password: xenserver

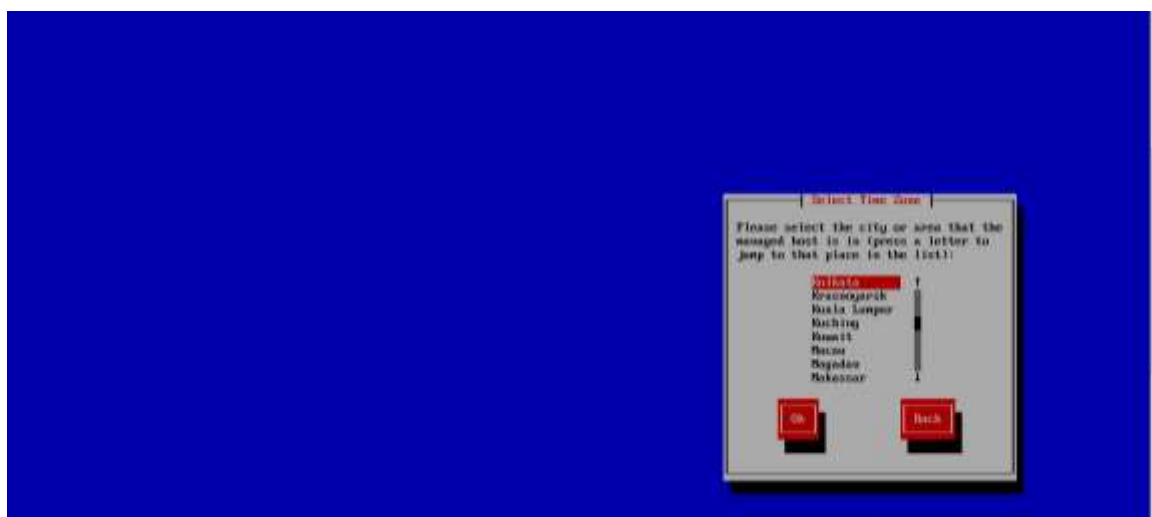

Step 18. Specifying the network configuration

Step 19: Setting the host name and DNS configuration

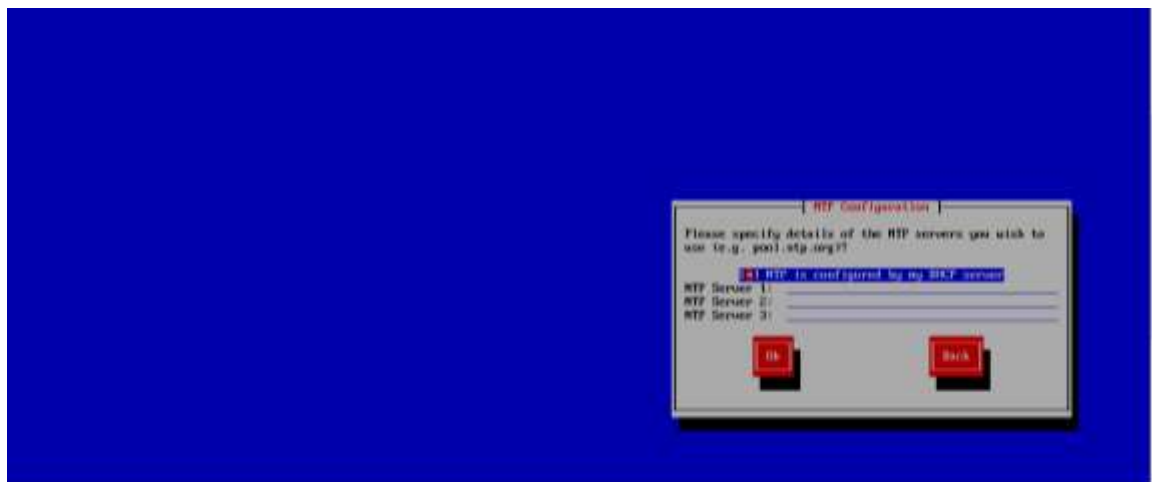

Step 20: Selecting the time zone

Step 21: Setting the system time

Step 22: Configuring NTP server

Step 23: Opening citrix | Xenserver

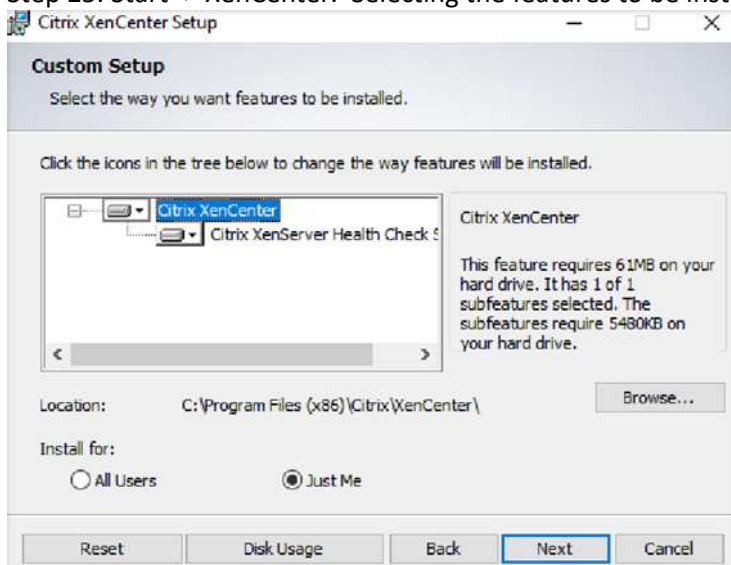

[Note the IP address and minimize it. if IP address not available: select Network and Management Interface-> Test Network-> enter password of XenCenter-> Ping local address. Go back and check status display]

Client connection: Start XenCenter software

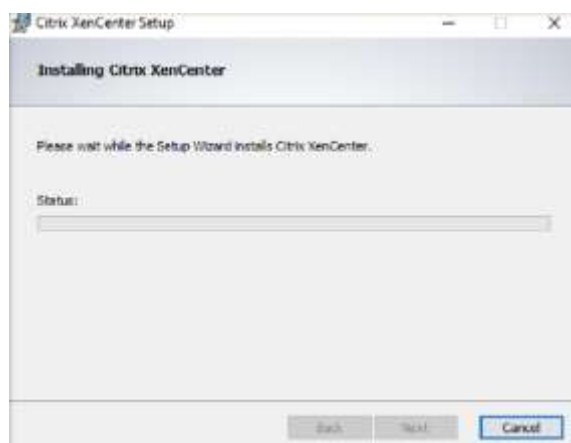

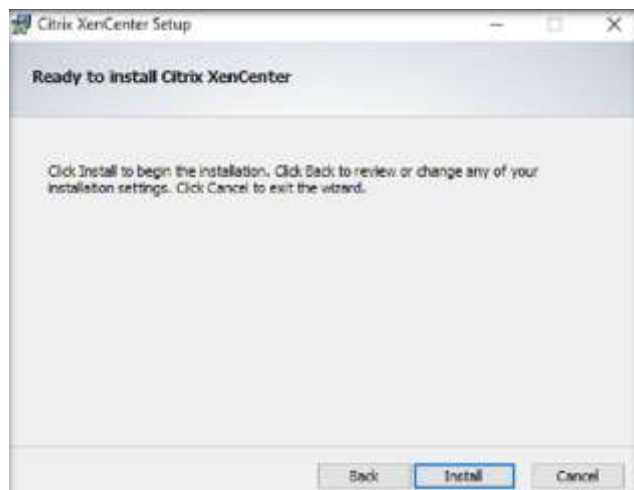

Step 24. Download and opening XenCentre

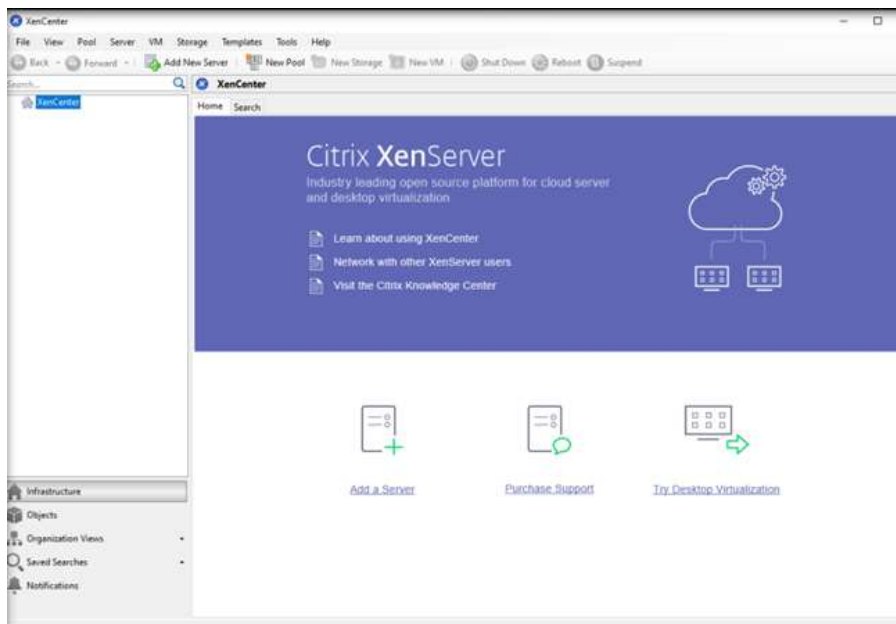

Step 25. Start -> XenCenter. Selecting the features to be installed

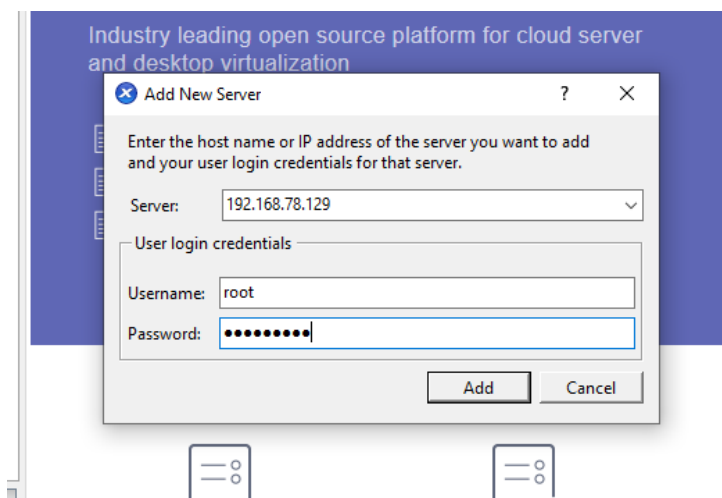

Step 26. Installing Citric Xencentre

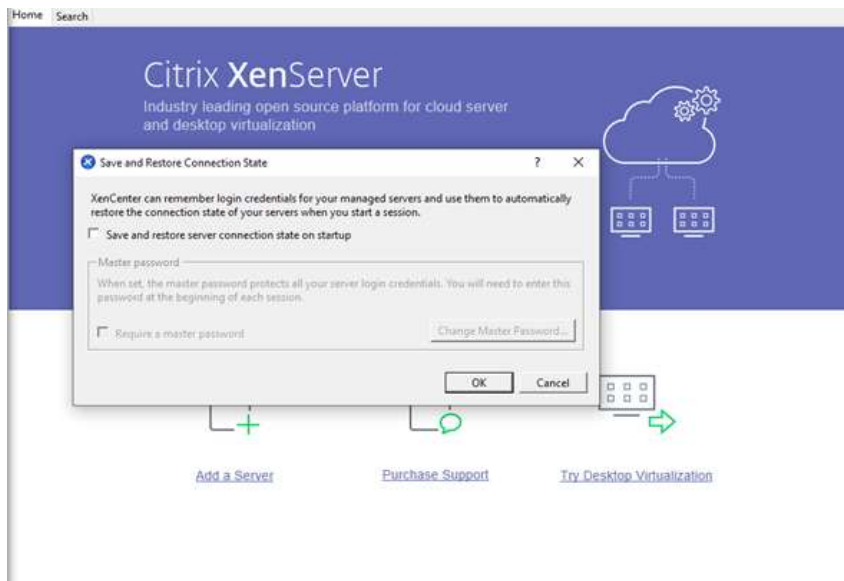

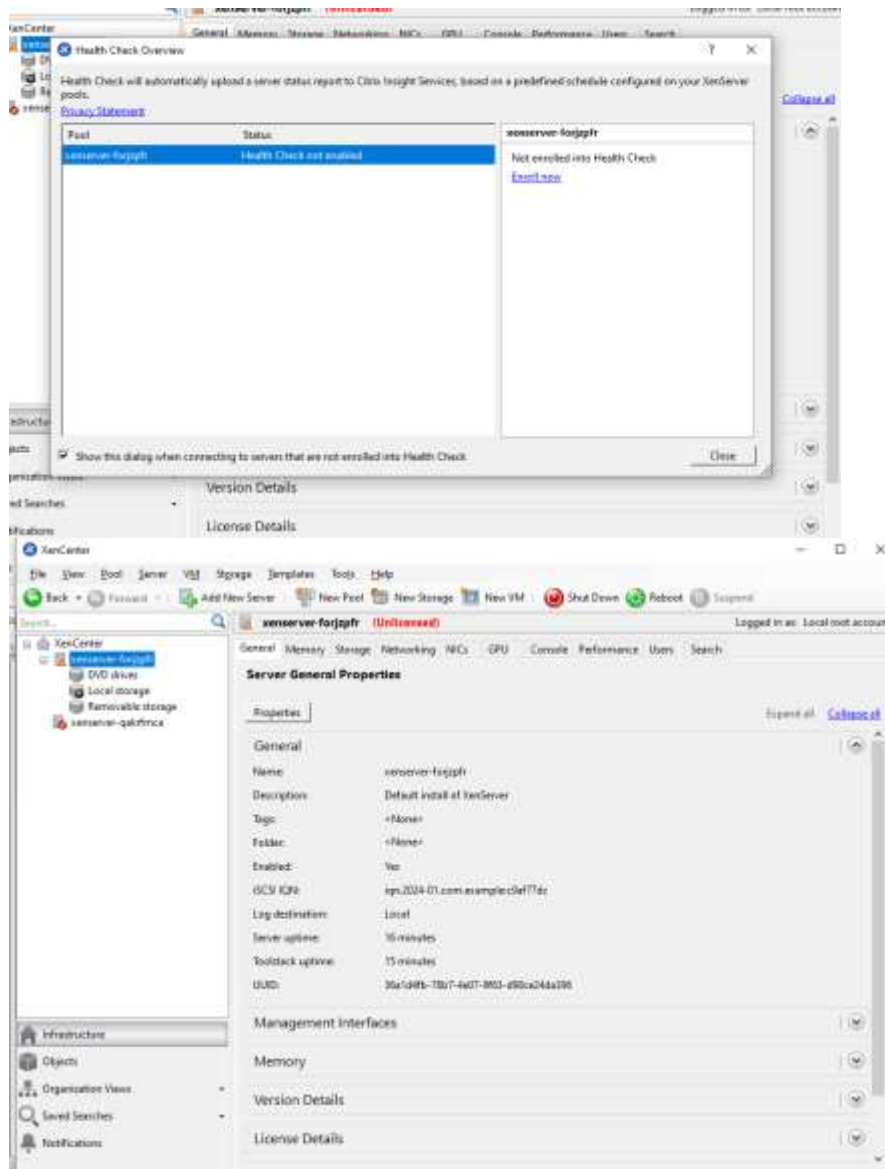

Step 27. Clicking on 'Add server':
Password: xenserver

Step 28: Adding the server details

Step 29: Selecting appropriate option and finishing

[Go to Console. Wait for XenServer Host SSL certificate and enter Server password.
Execute basic commands on the console.]